I am appealing my tickets that were given to me for someone driving into our building and taking out our window . We didn't receive much money to get it fixed we are a small business and helped the community for 27 yrs. I have met Rebecca on the council she came around to the small businesses on our street and saw how hard it is to stay open. I am hoping they can reduce the fines especially when it wasn't my fault and I wasn't even present. Shawn Herbert
