Thank you for the update. Yes, I do still object. I still have the same concerns as listed in the e-mail below.

Subject: Objection to License 20210000229

Hello,

Please accept this e-mail as an official objection to the license application of Shadey's Tavern, Inc., license 20210000229. I raise the following objections:

- The license applicant appears to be associated with the prior license holder and owner of the LLC that owns the property. Because of this, neighboring properties are concerned that this will simply be a "re-opening" of the same establishment, bringing back the same problems and disturbances to the neighborhood.
- In November of 2020, I was told by the Ward 2 office that this business was facing Adverse Action for multiple license violations, which makes it seem like the licensing change of hands is simply an attempt to "clear" those violations and continue business as usual with a clean slate.
- The building has been classified as a vacant building. Neighbors question if everything will be brought up to code and maintained accordingly.
- While the lengthy recommended conditions of the license are appreciated, there is concern that enforcement of these will be nearly impossible and too time consuming for the SPPD, which in turns makes it difficult for neighbors to get an accurate list of infractions documented.

Please include me at the legislative hearing.

Thank you -

Hi Julie,

The license hearing for Shadey's got put on hold since this last exchange, and is now being resumed. Could you please confirm if you still object to this license application?

Thanks,
