Ms. Vang,

You are correct, title is irrelevant since you clearly were aware of the issue; I had brought it up originally simply to alert you to a discrepancy with the County's records and what you told me. Your private property contracts are just that, between you and the seller.

Additionally, I am not here to dispute or argue with you what was or wasn't said, but I will let you know that Mr. Kedrowski's voicemail has been transcribed and attached to the record for your assessment. How he explained the fee is:

The issue with the fee you received is that a work order had been sent out to our Parks clean-up crew because they hadn't been taken care of by the due date. The fact that you pulled them out before they came out, they do what they call a "done by owner" fee. That is a fee generated because they were dispatched there, and is an expense of dispatching them.

This is the cost of dispatching the crew because you didn't have the items removed by deadline when the inspector went to check, then they were gone when the crew did show up to abate the nuisance. You are not getting a "fine" because it was done by the owner. This amount is the cost of dispatching the crew to do the work. But again, I'm not the decision-maker in this situation, and all emails as well as that voicemail will be attached to the record for Council's review and consideration.

This matter will go before the City Council on Wednesday, February 8, 2023 at 3:30 p.m. in room 300 City Hall. If you are contesting the recommendation you may appear in person or send written testimony to be added to the record to legislativehearings@ci.stpaul.mn.us. Should you wish to address Council directly but not appear in person, you must register in person by noon on Tuesday, February 7, 2023 here: <https://www.stpaul.gov/department/city-council/city-council-public-hearing-live-testimony>.

Thank you,
Joanna

As far as I know about a contract for deed the owner is like the bank.
I took over the property in April 2022 as a contract for deed. Title is not an issue because I was contacted by the inspector.

The main issue is that I was in communication with the inspector who send out the dispatch after I discuss the property is being cleaned up.
I still get a fine. The timeline can be worked out between myself and the inspector. There is such thing as a "Done by owner." Work order and I know that every situation is different. I'm asking for a waiver due to being compliant. As I was in compliance with the inspector.

The Next legislation date with city counsel is what time? Please let me know as I would like to attend the hearing. Thank you.

Best regards,

Viviane
