It is only an objection if they park on my street....I don't care what they do on their street. We have 3 other car repair dealers at the end of Atlantic and Phalen and they park way down by us and we call Law Enforcement all the time because our renters can't.

So not sure if complaint or not BUT objection to parking on our street.

Thanks for the quick response!!

We are unable to do anything with parking enforcement for 48 hours. They won't do anything to get them to move right away. Our renters are unable to park in front of their homes and it causes undo stress for us.
