Mr. Lehman,

Your case was continued from December 10 to Wednesday, December 20, 2023 City Council Public Hearing at 3:30 p.m. in Room 300 Council Chambers. You may do one of the followings:

- 1) Appear in person to 300 Council Chambers before 3:30 p.m. Please check-in with staff greeter(s) as you get off the elevator; or
- 2) Register before noon, December 19th to testify by phone. Here is the link. <https://www.stpaul.gov/departments/city-council/city-council-public-hearing-live-testimony>; or
- 3) No action is needed, if not given testimony.

As to the new order, we may imbedded into this existing appeal but I will let you know once I consulted with the hearing officer.

Thanks.

Mai Vang,

I have not heard back...

I also got another letter on 12-15-2023(revocation of Fire Certificate of Occupancy , Unit 1)from A.J. Neis. (attached) Which I will be sending in a appeal for that letter this week.

Please let me know when they will reschedule me from below. aka layover

thank you

Greg Lehman

Hello,

I did not attend the City council meeting on Wed, as, because I got a email from Ryan Tessman (fire inspector) saying the case was closed.

Then yesterday I got this email from Adrian J. Neis (fire Safety manager) He sent it a hour before the city council meeting.

He said he was going to contact someone from the legislative hearings to request a layover of this item..

I would like to know if he contacted you and when will my next meeting be in front of the city council?

Please let me know, I want to get this resolved, it will almost be a year since the problem./

thank you

Greg

Greg Lehman,

This was brought to my attention that Inspector Ryan Tessman recently approved your Fire Certificate of Occupancy based on the photos below but did not confirm the permit required or an appeal to be filed with the Building Official for the radiator in unit 1 was completed by December 1st, 2023.

It is my understanding no permit was obtained and approved and no appeal was filed with the building officiation, which means the Fire Certificate of Occupancy was issued in error.

Sec. 40.06. - Suspension, revocation and denial. (a) Grounds for revocation. The fire code official may, in writing, issue a notice to the owner(s) and known interested parties of the city's suspension or revocation of a fire certificate of occupancy issued under the provisions of this code, or deny an application therefor: (1) Whenever the certificate was issued in error, or on the basis of incorrect information supplied.

I understand there is a hearing today at 3:30pm to address this issue and you were wondering if needed to attend. With the late notice I have copied the Legislative Hearings email to request a layover of this item as Inspector Tessman will need to reissue the appropriate orders.

I sincerely apologize for any confusion this has caused. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thank you.

AJ

To whom it may concern,
Yes, December 13th would be fine.
Do you know the out come of the last meeting.
So, I know what to expect.
Will Marcia Mormand be there???
thank you,

Hello Mr. Lehman,
I sincerely apologize for your appeal not being on the Council public hearing agenda today, November 15. There was an email from Ms. Zimny to you rescheduling your public hearing; however, this information was missed last Wednesday as the information was passed on paper form to your case and as I was also copied on the email. However, there was an oversight on this, therefore, we will be happy to reschedule your public hearing to either December 6 or December 13 at 3:30 p.m. in Room 300 Council Chambers. If you prefer to testify by phone, here is the link public hearing live testimony to register, no later than noon on Tuesday. Please let me know which date you prefer. I have also left you a voicemail of the same.

Thank you.
