Morning Greg

Please see email below that I send back in October. This address was assessed for Q3 in error for which I sent this email below about but the customer called on Friday stating they were still receiving notifications from the City about it.

Please advise

Good Morning Greg

In our last submission to the City for past due accounts a balance of $122.81 was sent in error for the address above. Can you please update them on this and we of course have updated our records as well

Thank you
