Ok. I called and left message and said he needs to go through the appeal process.

I think it's probably better to let the appeal stand because even if he is able to get it approved and closed out soon, he would likely want to contest the fee for the time he was a VB. We still would stand by the decision to refer it to VB in the first place and wouldn't want to close out the file until after it gets approved which would likely be a little ways out.

So the appeal stands or are you going to cancel going over to VB?

Mai,

There was a revocation letter in AMANDA from 2/14, I've attached it here. It looks like we never used the "send" button in AMANDA to lock in the document so that may be why it wouldn't have shown in STAMP but I did enter "send" the process now.

I spoke with Frank and it sounds like the owner has already called him to request an inspection as well. Since it's just a Category I VB we would normally set this up with them as soon as they request it. It sounds like the soonest that Frank would be able to get out there would be a week or so out anyway so we would likely have the hearing completed prior to inspection if it's being heard next week.

Thanks,

Mitch Imbertson

Why is there no Revocation letter sent on this before it went to VB? See link
