WHEREAS, all liquor licenses allowed for the Schmidt Brewery District are currently being utilized; and

WHEREAS, Keg and Case (located within the Schmidt Brewery Commercial Development District) is looking to locate more restaurants with full liquor in their building; and

WHEREAS, because the Schmidt Brewery Commercial Development District was created before the Charter Amendment adoption, the District's ordinance language it states that the Schmidt Brewery Commercial Development District shall be limited to no greater than four (4) total liquor licenses and that three (3) of the four total licenses may only be granted to restaurants, as defined in Section 409.02 of the Saint Paul Legislative Code; and

WHEREAS, the goal of the District language was not to be more restrictive than the rest of the city for the number of restaurants allowed to obtain full liquor licenses; and

WHEREAS, council wishes to lift the cap on the number of restaurant full liquor licenses in the Schmidt Brewery Commercial Development District; and

WHEREAS, council also wishes to lift the cap on the number of all types of full liquor licenses allowed in the Schmidt Brewery Commercial Development District; now, therefore be it
