

Legislation Text

File #: RES 22-505, Version: 1

Acknowledging a public purpose of user participation in the co-design of City services and technical solutions and granting permission to the Office of Technology and Communication to spend city funds as an incentive and to compensate participants in the user experience research and usability testing.

WHEREAS, The City of Saint Paul and the Mayor of Saint Paul deem it an appropriate public purpose to build engagement processes where all critical stakeholders, from experts to end users, are encouraged to participate and are respected as equal partners sharing expertise in the design of services and products; and

WHEREAS, The City Council and the Mayor are desirous of intentionally involving target users in designing solutions, postponing design decisions until after gathering feedback, synthesizing feedback from target users into insights, and developing solutions based on feedback; and

WHEREAS, the Office of Technology and Communication is recruiting underrepresented community experts and requires authorization to spend city funds; and

WHEREAS, working directly with underrepresented community experts and compensating them for their role is an important step toward equity and inclusion in the design of City services and technical solutions; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, the Office of Technology and Communication is hereby authorized to make any expenditure, not to exceed $2,000, to fund compensation for participant design contributions and shall provide itemization of such expenditures to be approved in a future resolution; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Saint Paul City Council hereby authorizes the Office of Technology and Communication to act on behalf of the City to offer participant compensation; and be it

FINALLY RESOLVED, that a list of such expenditures, within the name of the recipient and value of compensation amount, shall be kept and included in future resolution dispensing compensation in compliance with all the requirements of Chapter 41 of the Administrative Code.