TAX IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Minnesota Statutes section 270C.72 requires licensing authorities to collect a tax identification number for each license applicant. You may provide one of the following three identification types: a Minnesota Tax Identification Number, a Federal Tax Identification Number (FEIN), or a Social Security Number (SSN).

This data will be provided to the Minnesota Department of Revenue for tax administration purposes and may be used to deny the issuance or renewal of your license in the event you owe Minnesota sales, employer's withholding or motor vehicle excise taxes. Refusal to provide a tax identification number will result in denial of your license application. Under the Federal Exchange of Information Agreement, the Department of Revenue may also supply this information to the Internal Revenue Service.

More information can be obtained from the Minnesota Department of Revenue at 651-296-6181 or www.revenue.state.mn.us.
