Case Narrative

The fire department was called to the report of a grill on fire, which caught the fence on fire and was spreading to the neighbor's house. Firefighters arrived and found heavy smoke on side Charlie with exposure issues. Firefighters evacuated the structure, extinguished the fire and conducted overhaul.

Witnesses state that they had a recreation fire, burning cardboard in the back fire pit around 1330 hours.

Investigation revealed a fire pit in the back of address 310 Edmund with a V shaped pattern on the ground vegetation, heading towards the detached garage. The ground fire traveled to Exposure Bravo wooden fence and 308 Edmund. 308 has vinyl siding, which fire quickly grew and caused some minor melting and damage to Exposure 304 Edmund.
