Property was acquired through foreclosure proceedings by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs. The prior Occupant agreed to surrender the property via a "Cash For Keys" agreement, in which the occupant was required to remove all garbage and personal property from the premises. The prior occupant completed this arrangement on April 19, 2023, at which time, RE/MAX prodigy took control of the property for VA's asset management company VRMS and had the locks re-keyed. There was no garbage or personal belongings on the property and nothing that could be considered a nuisance. therefore, We find that there are discrepancies with this being categorized as such:

1. The building was not vacant until April 19th when the prior occupant completed her CFK terms. Per the website, they PRE-DATED the property as vacant on 04/07/2023 at which time the property was occupied and not vacant.

2. We reached out to the enforcement officer assigned to this property (Matt Dornfeld Enforcement Officer #361- Office #651-266-1902 email - matt.dornfeld@ci.stpaul.mn.us -text #651-248-4316) and he sent us a message stating: "It was condemned due to gross unsanitary conditions, safety hazards and being a chronic neighborhood nuisance. I would strongly recommend calling our City Clerk's office at 651 266 8585 and file an appeal on the vacant building status. This is your only chance for a different result as I do not have the authority to overturn the condemnation. The previous owner was made aware of these circumstances on several different occasions. Thank you."

- Since the prior owner cleaned the property per the CFK agreement, there should not have been "gross unsanitary conditions, safety hazards and being a chronic neighborhood nuisance" after that date, hence the posted stickers dated 04/23/2023 should not have been posted.

We called the clerk and was told that our only recourse at this time is to file the appeal.
