Re: Appeal of Registration Requirement
Estate of Paul H. Glaser (62-PR-24-555)

To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed please find the following documents required to submit an appeal request per instructions from the City of Saint Paul:

- 1) APPLICATION FORM FOR APPEAL;
- 2) VACANT BUILDING REGISTRATION NOTICE;
- 3) APPLICATION FOR INFORMAL PROBATE OF WILL AND APPOINTMENT OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE;
- 4) NOTICE OF CASE FILING AND ASSIGNMENT; AND
- 5) [$25.00 APPLICATION FEE] SENT UNDER SEPARATE COVER VIA US MAIL TO ABOVE-MENTIONED ADDRESS

I represent Marilyn Gindi, the nominated Personal Representative (PR) of the Estate of Paul H. Glaser (Case File No. 62-PR-24-555). She received the attached Notice to register the decedent's home as a vacant building, and pay a $2,459.00 application fee. I write to appeal this request and provide evidentiary documentation, as listed above, and outline my reasoning below.

The Residence is Not Consistently Vacant.

Although the owner is now deceased, the PR, my client, a resident of Florida, resides at 2334 Doswell when she is in town to manage the estate's affairs. She has hired several local professionals to take care of the lawn/yardwork, check the mail, and secure the home on a weekly basis. Her next extended stay will be at the end of July for a week to ten (10) days. There is sufficient contact with and supervision of the home from local interested parties on behalf of the Estate, and the property is not neglected.

bridget@decorolaw.com (651)321-3058

There is an Active Probate Proceeding in Ramsey County Probate Court.

My client, Ms. Gindi, has every reason to expect to be appointed in the next 3-4 weeks as Personal Representative of the Estate of Paul H. Glaser, and she requires exterior and interior access to the property, as needed, on an ongoing basis. She is arranging for the sale of personal property, which is extensive, and she will be selling the homestead property of the decedent upon successful completion of the estate sale. Multiple professionals will also require access to the property on a regular basis.

For the above-mentioned reasons, I hereby appeal the City Council for reconsideration of this Request for Registration of the home of the decedent as "vacant property" since it is not consistently vacant. And, as the subject of an active probate proceeding, my client requires frequent and consistent access to the property to perform her duties and obligations. The requirement to register the property is an unnecessary financial burden on the estate, and failure to pay the fee will substantially inhibit access to the estate, an estate which is being successfully managed and properly secured.

Scheduling a Hearing Date.

Please note that I am out of my office until July 25, 2024, and therefore, would appreciate notice of any hearing scheduled by email, as my office mail is delayed in getting to me while away.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Bridget-Michaele Reischl
