I do see the pending assessment for the Vacant Building registration online; do you wish to appeal or handle through your title company? We will have to push your hearing to November 18th if you wish to appeal. These are done by phone, we need the best number to reach you that morning between 10 am and 12 pm and we will email you a packet once the system we need is available.

Let me know, thanks.

Good morning,

We need the property address in order to pull up your information (the file + assessment numbers have 100's of addresses connected to them).

Second, assessments go with the property. This is something that should have been disclosed to you at closing, in addition the property would have been placarded listing it as a vacant building. Pulling permits doesn't mean it isn't a vacant building anymore, receiving a Code Compliance certificate is the finish line. Unfortunately due to the City's digital security incident we are currently still unable to pull up information related to files, so I cannot look deeper into this at the moment.

That being said, you are certainly welcome to appeal if you wish too, but we have to reschedule your hearing to a later date regardless as we, again, cannot pull up the information we need.

Please let us know if you wish to proceed with your appeal, or if you wish to speak to your title company about this. This is something they should have discovered at closing, if not disclosed by the previous owner (which it certainly should have been).

Thanks,

Joanna

Subject: File #: VB2513

- Property ID: 35-29-22-24-0027
- File #: VB2513
- Assessment #: 258829

I recently received a letter proposing a charge for a vacant building. I would like to clarify a few points:

- I purchased this property in August 2024.
- The proposed charge appears to cover April 2024 through May 17, 2024, which is prior to my ownership.
- In December 2024, I pulled a permit to remodel the property. We had not pulled a permit earlier because we were waiting for architectural drawings.
- The property was vacant for approximately four months at most after my purchase.
- I did not receive any notice regarding this proposed charge until after March 2025.

Given these circumstances, I would like to know:

1. Do I need to attend the September meeting to present my case?
2. What documentation should I provide to show my purchase date, permit activity, and timeline of occupancy?

Thank you for your guidance.

Sincerely,
Johnny Campos
