Comments:

These items belong to my neighbor Jay Larson. When he lost his home, I told him he could store his possessions in my backyard (out of sight from the public's view) until he could relocate, or build a suitable building on my property to store his possessions. Knowing the situation (that she created) his vengeful/hateful/spiteful wife called the city code enforcement department ON ME just because I'm doing a good deed for Jay. He is looking for (but he needs time) a place to relocate his possessions. Now I'm the victim for doing a good deed, because of his wife. Bill
