Comments:

It has been difficult to find contractor available to do the work. I now have a contract and work is scheduled for Oct 18-Oct 19, to do sewer line replacement. It took me about 60 hours of effort to get a suitable contract.

Many businesses were completely locked for season.

I'm not able to afford these fees, and the problem of it not being completed by my previous contractor, Robert Brandtjen, was due to his abandoning the contract to replace my sewer line after he hit my water line. I now have a contract with a reputable company to replace the entire length of my sewer line from my house to the City Sewer Main on the street. I have not been able to find a contractor to fix the damage Brandtjen caused to my porch, and had to give up finding someone to do both this and the sewer work. The porch work requires a great deal of skill and skilled contractors are booked until Spring.
