Sean, thanks for taking my call this morning and for allowing Ms. Lovett to appeal today.

As I said, Ms. Lovett told me this morning that she tried to get tabs on her vehicle, but she found out that there is a lien on the vehicle and, therefore, she was unable to purchase the tabs.

I suggested that she appeal today to grant herself more time. She said she will do that. She realizes that we close at 4:30. I also told her that we will not be taking an appeal tomorrow.

Thank you for your consideration. –Racquel, 6-8573

Hi Sean. Lovett did not come to the office today. I sent an e-mail this afternoon asking if she still planned to file an appeal and got no response.

At this point, please proceed as normal on this address.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sean,

I just talked to the above about her Vehicle Abatement Order dated 11/16/18. She said she just found out about this order from her landlord. I sent it to her via e-mail. She opened the attachment while I was on the phone, so she has it now.

Because the City has a holiday on Thursday and Friday, I couldn't tell her to come in to appeal until next Monday. Please hold off enforcement on Monday, November 26. I will e-mail you on Monday with her appeal information. If she doesn't come in on Monday, I will inform you of that, too.

Thank you. Have a nice Thanksgiving.
