Hi Dick, This is really an enforcement decision, but it may be good to talk it through.

Mai, can you put this on for a staff report Tues around 11?

Thanks, Marcia

Hi Marcia,

I had an Appointment scheduled today to re-check this property for compliance with your Orders.

If you recall, the kitchen in this house had about a dozen recessed fixtures installed along with a new sheetrock ceiling. There were no Permits pulled for any of this work. Our Orders required that Ms Vang hire an electrician to certify that the unpermitted recessed light installation had been done properly. I checked to make sure that the Permits had been pulled and found that Ms Vang hired an electrician, but only to replace two recessed lights. No inspection was done on the previous installations as required in the Correction Orders and reaffirmed at the Legislative Hearing.

I am cancelling today's appointment to allow time for your input on how you would prefer that we proceed.

Thank you,
Dick
