CORRECTION NOTICE

RE: 1060 KILBURN ST
File #: 10-913908

Dear Sir or Madam:

The City of Saint Paul, Department of Safety and Inspections has inspected the above referenced property on November 04, 2010 and has determined that the following deficiencies exist in violation of the Saint Paul Legislative Code<sup>1</sup> (see footnote 1, below).

1. JAGGED/PROTRUDING PLASTIC: There are sections of the sliding window (west) in the upper unit that are partially broken such that portions are sharp, jagged and protruding. The window no longer safely performs its intended function. Remove the protruding edges or replace the window. A permit is required for window replacement.
2. WINDOW LOCKING HARDWARE: Per chapter 34.09 (c) of the St Paul legislative code.....Locking hardware shall be required on all windows up to and including the second story and every other window which is accessible by a deck, porch or other walking surface. The hardware on the sliding window (West) of the second floor unit is not an approved material, device or method of construction and is not installed in a reasonable and skillful manner. Provide an approved locking mechanism or replace the window. A permit is required for window replacement.

You are hereby notified to correct these deficiencies in accordance with the appropriate codes. The Enforcement Officer will reinspect these premises on or after

November 15, 2010                      For item 1

December 10, 2010,                      For item 2

by which date the violations noted must be corrected. Failure to correct these deficiencies may result in the issuance of criminal charges<sup>2</sup> and/or a civil lawsuit, and possible abatement/assessment by the City. All repairs and new installations must be made in accordance with the appropriate codes. Permits may be obtained by calling 651-266-8989.

You may file an appeal to this notice by contacting the City Clerk's Office at 651-266-8688. Any appeal must be made in writing within 10 days of this notice. (You must submit a copy of this Notice when you appeal, and pay a filing fee.)

If you have any questions or request additional information, please contact me. To arrange an appointment or request an extension of time to complete repairs, you will need to speak directly to me at 651-266-1904.

Sincerely,

Joel Essling

WARNING Code inspection and enforcement trips cost the taxpayers money. If the violations are not corrected within the time period required in this notice, the city's costs in conducting a reinspection after the due date for compliance will be collected from the owner rather than being paid by the taxpayers of the city. If additional new violations are discovered within the next following 12 months, the city's costs in conducting additional inspections at this same location within such 12 months will be collected from the owner rather than being paid by the taxpayers of the city. Any such future costs will be collected by assessment against the real property and are in addition to any other fines or assessments which may be levied against you and your property.
