Lexington ROW

Lexington

A photograph of a winter forest scene, similar to the one above. The ground is covered in snow, and the trees are bare. A red rectangular label with white text is positioned in the middle-right area of the image.
