Internal note

The property owner of 505 Beaumont Street called stating that he reached out to set up his new account for his property, he found out that he owed $333.18 that he did not know about, he called WM back to tell them that he has not been using their services and they told him he needed to call us back to see if he could possibly get a credit back.

Internal note

Staff spoke to the property owner who stated that the property did not receive any garbage services during this time period. Staff explained that if there was no vacancy request or UDRF submitted that they could not recommend removal of the assessment. However, they did state that the property owner could contest via a legislative hearing. Property owner confirmed that they would attend a layover hearing on 4/18/2023 at 3:00 PM.

Clare Pillsbury April 13, 2023 at 14:30

Hello Mitchell,

This is just to confirm that we have scheduled you for a legislative hearing on April 18th at 3:00 PM so that you can contest your Oct - Dec 2022 delinquent garbage assesment. We will call you at 651-413-6624 between 3:00 and 4:00 PM to conduct the hearing. Please let us know if you have any additional questions or concerns.

Best,

Clare Pillsbury
