As someone who frequently bikes through downtown St. Paul regularly as well as works downtown, I would like to suggest that the bike lane is better suited to St. Peter rather than Wabasha. Wabasha is not the correct street and doesn't leave enough room for cars not bikes to safely travel. Not only that but it takes all loading space from an amazing local independent music venue, Amsterdam Bar, which would doom the space and leave downtown more barren and ghost like than it already is.
