Hi Brian,

I just spoke to Council Offices. No appeal has been filed. I do not see any permits on file. Due to the severity of the issues, the inspection will take place today along with appropriate enforcement action.

Good Morning,

We are under the understanding that an appeal has been made for my orders from last week. If the orders are appealed we stop all inspection until the City of St. Paul's legislative Hearing Officer (LHO) had made a decision.

If there is an appeal in process then there will be no inspection today.

If you have any further questions please feel free to ask.

Thank you,

Good Morning Mr. Ganzel,

I am sorry to have been out of touch. This month has been difficult for us, we lost two family members in the same week.

If it is at all possible I would like to reschedule today's inspection until Monday. It is my granddaughter's birthday for one thing. Bridgette has the permits she needs and has corrected all of the items except for the wiring. Our electrician hasn't been able to work us into his schedule yet but he did put us on his schedule for Friday afternoon.

Thank You,

Teresa Warnke
