SYNOPSIS:	The fire department was called to a report of a dwelling fire at 666 Minnehaha at 0239 in the morning. The fire department arrived to find fire showing from the North West corner of the porch. The residents in the home woke to the sound of the smoke alarms and smoke fill the house. The residents fled the home and made sure everyone was safe. The fire originated on the porch in the area of a television, PlayStation 4, and a space heater. All of these were plugged into a power strip and the resident is unsure if the electrical equipment was of, but he was sure the heater was off. The other residents in the home stated that he sometimes forget to turn the heater off. There was a problem with the outlets on the porch, one was not operational, this outlet was not in the area of origin. With all known causes ruled out this fire has been ruled undetermined.
