Here you go, Eric.

On 6/12/19, from 3:05 pm-3:45pm, I Akbar R. Muhammad, was using a decoy to conduct tobacco age compliance inspection of Midway Amoco BP, 1347 University Ave. West. Mr. Ahmed Nagdi sold a pack of Marlboro cigarettes to an underage decoy. I went in to present myself as an inspector and to inform him that he sold to a tobacco decoy. Mr. Nagdi stated that he asked for ID twice, the first time he asked for the ID and sold to the decoy. The decoy left the store and forgot to retrieve a receipt. When the decoy asked for a receipt Mr. Nagdi ID'd him again and took back the pack of cigarettes. I explained that this was still a sale to an underage minor. Mr. Nagdi called the owner, Mr. Khaled Aloul, and explain the situation to him, I also talked with the Mr. Aloul and explain what will be happening going forward. As I was talking with the Mr. Aloul , I observed a patron, who budged in front of the line, asked Mr. Nagdi for 1 pack of cigar wraps and two single Marlboro cigarettes. Mr. Nagdi handed both the pack of cigar wraps and two single Marlboro cigarettes to the patron and he quickly left the premise. I didn't observe any cash exchanged during this transaction.
