Hi Mai,

Thank you for your communication and for your help with this process. I'm hoping to list the house for sale as soon as I can. As the expenses of repairs have been extensive and the house has been vacant since mid-June.

To that end, I'm hoping that you can help me by providing an email version of the Certificate of Occupancy (or some type of communication) that I can provide my real estate agent that this property can be listed on MLS.

Also, I wanted to note, that the address on the letters is incorrect. My property management company was asked to update my address at the city, but failed to do so, so I am still not receiving any letters that the city sends me. Who should I reach out to in order to get this updated?

Thanks again to everyone for their help as we worked through this. Everyone at the city has been extremely patient and helpful throughout the process.

Best regards,

Joe Adolph

Mr. Davis,
