Thank you Frances. So I am assuming that the first breakdown that you provided was for 781 Hague Ave, and the second breakdown you provided was for 783 Hague. Is that correct?

Best,

Good Morning,

It is the same homeowner, just that they have it separated, this is what a lot of duplexes do, they separate the accounts for billing of the tenants. The billing history and the payment history for the accounts are listed below in the previous emails. Please let me know if you have any other questions or would like to discuss this via phone. Thanks

Thank you Frances. I am still confused then. Are there two accounts for the property then? Or are there two separate accounts for two separate properties that just happen to have the same mailing address? If so, please provide billing and payment history for both accounts from Q2 - Q3 2022 as well as the names and mailing addresses on the accounts. It seems like there is a lot of confusion about these accounts and the property owner is understandably confused. Please respond by tomorrow at 4:00 PM.

Thank you Frances. What I don't understand is your records show that there was a payment of $106.81 made on 4/16/2022. Since the payment covered the invoiced amount, why is there an assessment for the property? The property owner stated that this may be due to the fact that there were two accounts set up for the property. Is this true?

Please respond by Friday at 12:00 as there is a hearing for this property next week.

Best,
