

THRIVENT FINANCIAL®

Connecting faith & finances for good.®

TA 18-638

RECEIVED

NOV 08 2018

CITY CLERK

11-30-18

Dear Mai Vang

As per your conversation
(Oct 25-26th) File # J1902 B.
prop address 1082 Suburban Ave
assessment # 198101

Sending more information for the hearing / appeal if I as homeowner need to pay out of pocket for emergency Boarding
You had mentioned information was "sketchy". This boarding was indeed related to the fire and ~~and~~ maybe covered by Insurance. Hope you will share @ the legislative hearing on Nov 6th - that I am unable to attend or shared @ the public hearing in Jan. 2019-

Little did I know that when I was 'gifted' an attic fire by a lightning bolt that

THRIVENT
FINANCIAL®

Connecting faith & finances for good.®

my present life would be put on hold.

The trauma of a fire & relocation is overwhelming. Many thanks to St Paul Fire Dept. for saving the structure. No knowledge of ramifications of what would follow.

(This is adding more drama to the trauma).

Shocked at assessment calculation of board up. I'm sure due to guidelines/protocol for Ramsey Co. If this info/statement is of any benefit to this incident will wait. I guess till invoice arrives.

Corinne Erickson

Homeowner - 49yr. resident of Ramsey Co.