I thought that same thing - but you contact us at the time it took place you don't wait 8 months to let someone know.

What has he been doing with his trash this whole time?

As I stated on my last e-mail there has been no communication with him.

It's a small cart. I wonder if it fell into the truck. Is it a rear load or side load? What was the communication like before 8 months ago?

Was the last time he called in, he was upset enough to make him think you would take the cart? Maybe the cart went missing/fell into truck around the same time and it was a coincidence

So what are we supposed to do with this account - there is no ticket or communication on his account to remove a cart.

There is no communication at all - so it this unit was to be put on hold for any reason he never called or sent us any paperwork.

We have had the Upper Unit on vacancy hold since Jan 2020.

Yes there are and did he give you a reason for those - they aren't because the driver is missing him.

He just hasn't put out his cart
