ok
that is what i was told by code compliance too-also do u have a process description for this process so that i can give to my realtor - so that she can explain potential buyers?

Thank you for the clarification.

so I can list it for sale but note that the buyer needs to proceed using cat3 process...

Good Afternoon,

The only way this could come about is to have a contract drawn up where the deed transfers upon completion of the code compliance repairs. The Legislative Hearing Officer would need to approve this transaction. Copying Mai Vang as once they transfer to Cat. IIIs DSI is no longer in control.

Hi Clint and Robert

can i list cat3 for sale withthe code compliance report and have the buyer come to the property hearing for cat3 ?

or What is the process to move it back to cat2 to sell it as I believe cat3 can not be listed for sale?
