David,

The Department of Safety and Inspections is in receipt of the attached letter you recently sent requesting a to withdraw your application, and requesting a refund of the license application fee for the above referenced pending license application.

So that DSI may continue process this request, please provide the following additional information buy Friday, November 22, 2013:

A signed statement stating you intend to discontinue your business operation here, and no longer intend to operate and/or conduct activities at this location which require a City of St Paul Health/Sport Club license.

You may send this statement via email as an attached .pdf document if you wish.

I'll place a copy of this email in the U.S. mail.

Thanks,
