

One in five youth in Saint Paul has smoked little cigars or cigarillos.

Youth in Saint Paul are using these harmful and addictive tobacco products because:

- They are sold in fruit and candy flavors like grape, strawberry, white grape, blueberry, and chocolate.
- They are cheap. The average price for a single cigarillo in Saint Paul stores is $1.08. The cheapest sells for $0.50.
- They are heavily marketed in low-income neighborhoods to minority populations.
