Jane,

The pending assessment is $387.00. The only way this amount can be reduced/removed is if the City Council amends the assessment. Mai indicated below how you can appeal the assessment. I think she said to let her know if you wish to appeal (below).

Thank you,
Lynn

Lynn,

I will do that. Should I send it with that notice that was attached? Can I send it for the $228 or does it need to be the higher amount? (I am new to managing this nonprofit and did not understand that it had two certificates of occupancy, and when I called about the second notice they said it was already paid.)

Thank you,
Jane

Jane,

If you send the payment to our address (in my signature block), we will post the payment on January 2nd. Since this is a pending assessment, we would not be mailing the invoice until 2025 anyway.

I hope that helps but please feel free to call me if you would like to discuss.

Hi Mai,

The website for online payments is down for the remainder of the year due to certification for the 2025 property taxes. The website and processing payments via US mail will resume on January 2, 2025.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,
Lynn

Hmm, I tried to pay but it doesn't allow for online payment. It just shows various assessments. Should I just send a check in the mail? I want to make sure it's tracked correctly.

Hello Ms. Rydholm,

The fire inspector indicated that 96 Wheelock Pkwy E has two Fire Certificate of Occupancy. One is for the building and one for the garage/storage. The payment received (CHK 3006) was applied to the C of O for the garage on July 18, 2024. The building C of O was sent to assessment for unpaid. This assessment on December 3 is for the building.

See attached invoices for your hearing on December 3, 2024 via telephone hearing between 10AM-NOON. The caller ID will show as 612-315-7905. Let me know if you still wishes to appeal.

Hi! We received an assessment for our fire certificate but we already paid. Evidence of payment is attached.

We received a notice earlier about nonpayment and I called and they said they had received it. I'm not sure what is going on with the processing there, but we are obviously contesting this matter.

Please let me know that you have indeed processed this payment. Thank you.
