This is regarding 237 and 239 Bates. I don't want my vehicles towed and the structures town down. I want to get a building permit and get the structures up to par the way they want it. I am willing to buy a new tent to replace the old one and get the inspectors off my back for the last time.

WARNING Code inspection and enforcement trips cost the taxpayers money. If the violations are not corrected within the time period required in this notice, the city's costs in conducting a reinspection after the due date for compliance will be collected from the owner rather than being paid by the taxpayers of the city. If additional new violations are discovered within the next following 12 months, the city's costs in conducting additional inspections at this same location within said 12 months will be collected from the owner rather than being paid by the taxpayers of the city. Any such future costs will be collected by assessment against the real property and are in addition to any other fines or assessments which may be levied against the property.
