Christine,

I went to hand deliver a delinquent invoice to 873 Rice St. Rice St. Grocery. When I entered I smelled smoke. I handed the invoice to the clerk behind the counter (Hussein). At that time I saw the lit cigarette sitting on the counter behind him. I told him he was not to be smoking in the store he laughed and said he was sorry. He did not attempt to put the cigarette out when I left. I came back in to ask his name and the cigarette was still burning.
