A photograph of a small, sparsely furnished room with a slanted ceiling. In the foreground, a black couch is partially visible, with a white smartphone lying on its seat. To the left, a wooden table holds a black box and some papers. A power cord runs across the floor. The walls are a light, off-white color, and the floor is a light-colored carpet. The room appears to be a small, enclosed space, possibly a storage room or a small office.
