Case Narrative

The fire department was called to a report of smoke coming from a closed restaurant. Firefighters arrived and found heavy smoke coming from the roof area and the "C" (Charlie) side of the structure. Firefighters evacuated the structure, extinguished the fire and conducted overhaul. Command was terminated and the scene was released.

Security cameras present at the location and several businesses in the area. At time of this report, unknown if footage was captured of the event.

Business employees report that they had left for the evening around 7pm. Locked the door and made sure all of the burners were turned off. They reported that their vents were cleaned at the end of September and were due for another cleaning in April. No repairs/upgrades to any equipment and no repairs/upgrades to any of the utilities.
