To Whom this May Concern,

I am writing in regards to The Lex , a private owned club in St.Paul. I was lucky enough to share my wedding reception there among all my family and close friends. This is by all the most friendly and welcoming establishment in this area of St.Paul. This day and age it is hard to find good hearted people still wanted to ensure customer satisfaction. My friends and family all said it was the best time time of their lives and a huge part of it was the environment they were in. Not to mention the location is perfect, right off the freeway but not so busy that you cannot find parking all my guest complemented this aspect.

It was very hard to find something that was affordable, The Lex wasn't looking to rip me off. and my special day but charge reasonable and affordable. The area for the price, all business cost an arm and leg in that area, we couldn't find anything even close to affordability The Lex offers . The staff was welcoming and went above and beyond what I accepted, the servers were making constant trips up and down stair with no complaints and no tip expectation. Everyone there made you feel comfortable and at home. It is hard to find such good people that are willing to go to the extreme for your satisfaction. One of the owners even spent extra time finishing things in the upstairs to ensure everything was ready for my big day. The Lex was so clean and constantly being maintained as the night was going. There was never any mess or safety concerns just clean and sanitary. I would highly recommend The Lex for any events, the space, the affordability, area and the people make this club such a unique and awesome place to be.
