As you are aware the Trillium project has been diligently worked on by the community and supported by District 6 Planning Council for over twenty years.

District 6 Planning Council held two meetings with community notification regarding what the neighborhood refers to as Trillium. Kathleen Anglo was present as well. The naming of the site was discussed and the neighbors have decided that the name should be; "Trout Brook Nature Sanctuary" and District 6 Planning Council concur.

Thank-you for your consideration of this and if you have questions, please contact the office at the numbers above.

Regards,

Jeff Martens
