Why are you interested in serving on a board or committee?

I love giving back to my community. I moved to Houston, Texas to attend college and ended up living there for 20 years. I have been back 20 years now and I have learned to appreciate where I come from. My community is the Historic Rondo community where I was born and raised. My parents Lee and Bertha Douglas were among the original founders and board members of Aurora St. Anthony Neighborhood Development Corporation. They instilled a belief in me to care about our home and the people in our community. I was asked to take my Father's place on the board when I came home and I am now the Board Chair for ASANDC. Nieeta Presley and I along with our other board members have tried to bring about changes in our community that would make our parents proud. I believe my skills give me the opportunity to help.

What skills/training or experience do you possess for the committee(s) for which you seek appointment?

The skills/training and experience I possess to seek an appointment to the Heritage Preservation Commission are: a BFA in Environmental Design, University of Houston, Houston, Texas. Master of Arts in Education, University of St. Thomas, St Paul, MN. I have over 40 years experience in Architectural Design, space planning, interior design, graphic design. I have been an educator for 16 years in the St. Paul School District. While teaching I continued to design and was the designer for the new facility for ASANDC. Now retired I continue to design. I recently renovated my one hundred year old family home, designed the renovation of 2 residences on Minnehaha Ave., St. Paul, for ASANDC and one of our partners. I am currently designing a coffee shop in our Western U Plaza located on the corner of Western and University in St. Paul. As a designer in Houston I did research on a historic project uncovering much history and architectural information. I believe as a designer and educator we learn much history about people through their art, history and architecture.
