NARRATIVE

I, Sergeant Rigo Aguirre (SQD# 862) am assigned to the Saint Paul Police Department VICE Unit and am working with the Department of Safety and Inspections (DSI).

A compliance check consists of using underage cooperating individuals (UCI) between the ages of 18 and 20 years of age to enter the establishment and attempt to purchase alcohol. The UCI's are equipped with police buy fund money (serial numbers recorded), and a Minnesota picture ID with "UNDER 21" printed above their picture. UCI's have been given training which covered areas such as honesty, not being deceptive, being curious, safety, and situational awareness.

Primary offense:

LIQUOR LAW-FURNISHING LIQUOR TO A MINOR

On June 2, Officer Graupman (West FORCE unit) assisted me in conducting alcohol compliance checks at licensed establishments in St. Paul. UCI #16-2 and UCI # 16-3 were used for this operation. Both UCI's are under 21 years old and were in possession of their state issued picture IDs.

At approximately 1400 hours, the UCIs entered Arnellia's at 1183 University Ave in St. Paul. The UCIs sat at the bar and asked for beer, 2 cans of Colt 45. I received a message from one of the UCI's indicating that a sale of alcohol was in progress. I left my vehicle and went inside the bar with Officer Graupman. We saw both UCIs sitting at the bar with a 12 ounce can of Colt 45 in front of them. The UCI's told me that they walked into the bar and did not see anyone behind the bar. After a few minutes a male, later identified via MN ID as ROBINSON, LARRY ROBERT Jr (7-23-1975, 1200 Beam Ave, Maplewood, MN, 651-313-3468), walked to the bar from the kitchen area. The UCI's stated that the ROBINSON gave them each a can of Colt 45 beer when they asked for beer. UCI 16-2 stated he paid ROBINSON for the beer and received change.

I identified myself to ROBINSON, he was still behind the bar. ROBINSON acknowledged the sale and said he looked at their IDs. ROBINSON stated he was not to blame because he was not a bar tender. He said he works in the kitchen and there was no bartender working at the time. He said he only sold the beer because management did not schedule the bar tender. ROBINSON stated he was not going to pay any fine because he was not the bartender. He said it was the owner's fault and they would have to pay. I asked ROBINSON to take the beer and the change back and return my $20 bill used for the purchase. ROBINSON operated the cash register flawlessly, opened the drawer and returned my $20 bill. I checked the serial number and confirmed it was the same bill I gave to the UCIs.

No citations will be issued at this time. Case has been referred to the Department of Safety and Inspections for possible adverse action.

Case will be submitted to the City of Saint Paul for possible charges.

NO FURTHER AT THIS TIME.

PUBLIC NARRATIVE

On June 2, 2016, the Saint Paul Department assisted Saint Paul Department of Safety and Inspection with an alcohol compliance check at Arnellia's Bar (1183 W University Ave, St. Paul). During this check the bartender sold alcohol to a person under 21 years. On going investigation.
