NARRATIVE

ICC Squad 1479 not available

BWC available for D Wallace. I did not review my BWC prior to completing this report.

On 6/23/18 at 0115 hours, I, squad 312 (Wallace) was dispatched to 1981 3 St E for a burglary report.

I spoke with the complaint, identified as TAIWO ABOSEDE REUBEN (1/09/1977, 1760 FERNWOOD APT 201, ROSEVILLE, MN, C/P: 818-399-3791). REUBEN stated that it was her fathers house and that he was out of the county. She was alerted by her father that the alarm company (Front Point) had called and stated that they had alarms for the residence. She stated that on 6/14/18 at 0506 hours the garage door had an entry alarm. On 6/15/18 at 1927 hours the side door to the house had an entry alarm and on 6/18/18 at 0641 hours the front door had an alarm.

REUBEN stated that on 6/21/18 she went to house and was alerted by a neighbor that they noticed that the side door appeared to open. Squads responded but did not notice any damage or entry made. (PCN 18-135515)

REUBEN stated that she had already checked the house and no one was in there but observed the side door to the house was damaged. She stated that she did not notice anything missing from inside.

Primary offense:

BURGLARY-FORCED ENTRY,NIGHT,RESIDENCE

I did notice that the side door to the house had appeared to be broke into as the frame of the door was damaged. REUBEN stated that the alarm was currently active. I took photos of the damaged side door, as well as the garage service door and front door to the house. The front house door was secure but I did notice that there were what appeared to be tool marks on the front door. I later uploaded the photos to the Media Vault.

I had Data channel send out a board up crew to secure the house side door and garage service door.

NARRATIVE

I, Sgt. Mayavski, was assigned this case and reviewed the original report(s).

There does not appear to be any solvability factors present at this time. I called and provided Taiwo Abosedere my contact information. She advised she would provide it to her father and he would make any determination of loss when he arrives home.
