We are selling the property at 683 Magnolia, we just got the problems tenants out of the building and the city tagged it as a vacant building. We do have this building property maintained and the utilities are on. We have an alarm system in this building that will alert us if there are intruders. We drive by and check on this building several times a week. The lawn is maintained and building is secure. We did a truth in housing inspection and have the building listing with a real estate agent. We do not believe this building should be tagged vacant as we are taking care of it and will continue to do so.
