

199 Duke St – Photos by Owner

Pollinator Friendly Garden

This area has been planted with a range of native plants to provide high quality habitat to pollinators.

COMING SOON ! ...

(well, in the next 2 – 4 years)

Restoring the Landscape with Native Plants

Watch this spot for MN Native Wildflowers!

Bvld Non compliance peace poles picnic tables paver permanent planter boxes

Bldg non compliant permanent wood box

Bldv non compliant permanent planters

Permanent trellis

Bldv 2ft high bush

Dirt and mulch height for blvd

Blvd tall structure on corner

Bldv wood and stone edgers

Walkway pavers

Walkway and edgers pavers

Stone edgers

Bldv wood and stone edgers

Permaculture first radishes outdoor start spring 2020

Permaculture companion plant scarlet runner beans and cucumbers summer 2020

Permaculture arugula and radish top salad spring 2020

Permaculture grow food, sow joy magazine cover summer 2020

Permaculture baby tomato plants spring 2020

Permaculture Growing Food (part 2)

Permaculture Growing Food (Part 3)

Helpers for Pollinator Healing Garden (Part 1)

Pollinator Garden (Part 1)

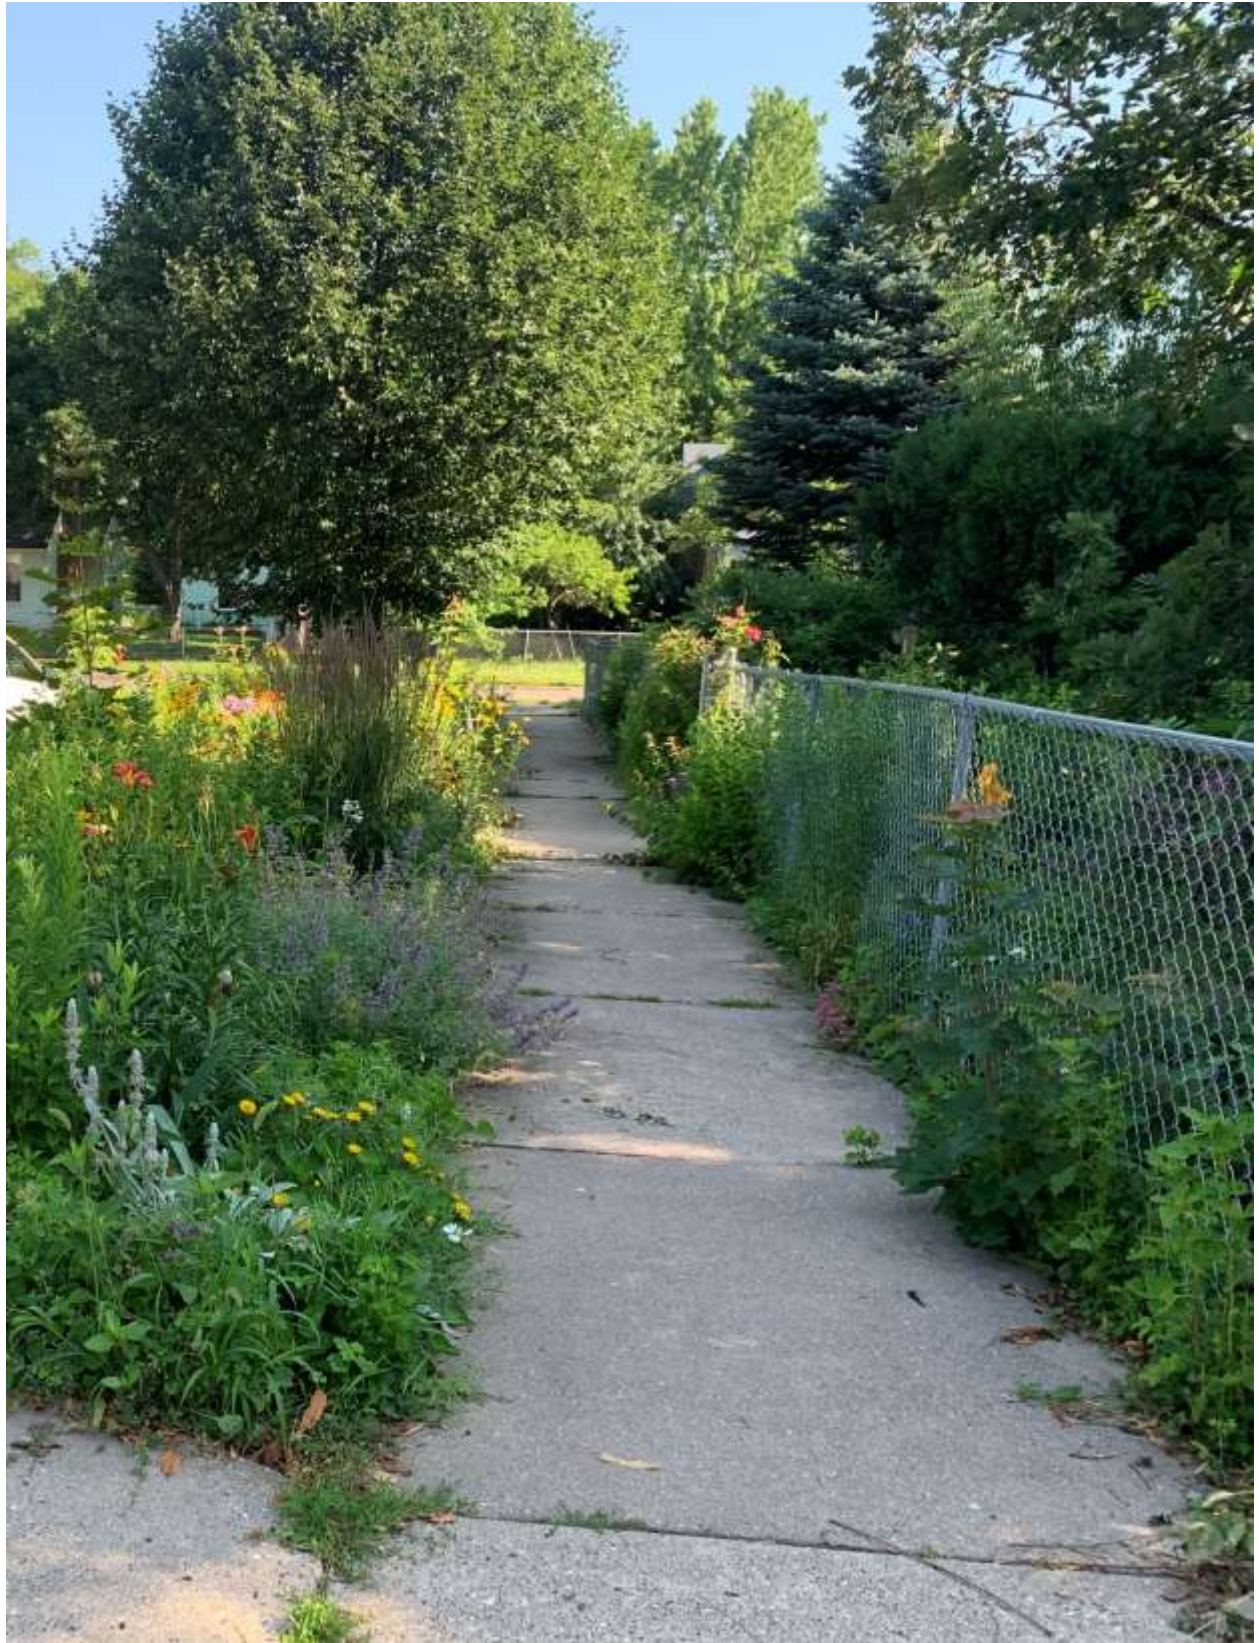

Pollinator Garden Part 2

Prairie Smoke
Geum triflorum

www.wildones.org

Three Sisters Backyard Garden

