The Minnesota Government Data Practices Act (Minnesota Statutes Chapter 13) governs the City’s use of the information contained in this application. Some of the information sought in this application is private data under the Act. The requested information will be used by the appointing authority to carry out the City’s official appointment responsibilities. You are not required to provide any information. However, failure to answer the application questions may cause the appointing authority to reject your application. The majority of items contained in this application are public, including name, address, employment, skills, training and experience, and are therefore available to anyone requesting it. The remaining items on the application form are classified as private. The private data is available only to you and to other persons in the City who, because of work assignments, reasonably require access to the information.

Why are you interested in serving on a board or committee?

Since moving to St. Paul six years ago, I have remained committed to find ways to stay informed and engaged in our local government. After managing a St. Paul city council race in 2018, I became even more interested in the work that the planning commission does and how they play a pivotal role in advising the Council on the ideas and plans needed to move this city forward, while also bringing in the input of everyday residents. This commission brings together two of my biggest interests, policy and community engagement.

What skills/training or experience do you possess for the committee(s) for which you seek appointment?

Most of my background is working on political campaigns and on the official side of government during my time in Senator Klobuchar's office. Now in my role at Target, I believe I bring an ability to storytell and effectively tell a story that resonates with the community. Overall, though all of my past experiences, I believe I bring an ability to manage, organize, analysis and effectively communicate a narrative. I plan to bring all of these skills and experiences to the planning commission.
