

Dec.14, 2018 I was out sick. The owner/RP were notified of my absence. Rescheduling the inspection appointment.-EF

Jan.8, 2018 I went to the property to do the inspection and no one showed up. I knocked on the door and the tenants stated me that they were not aware or informed of an inspection today. The tenant provided me a phone number to call. I called the owner and left a message.-EF

Jan.9, 2019 I received a call and text message after work hours from the owner.-EF

Jan.10, 2019 I called the owner today and left a message again. The owner immediately called back and we have set up a new inspection appointment for January 28, 2019 for 1pm. The owner has provided me with a new mailing address. The owner has stated that she has contacted someone in our office and left the new mailing info. This information is not verified and the info was not changed. Sending new appointment letter and charging No Entry Fee.-EF
