ORDINANCES

An ordinance is a city law enacted by the City Council. It is read at four separate council meetings and becomes effective after passage by the Council and 30 days after publication in the Saint Paul Legal Ledger. Public hearings on ordinances are held at the third reading.

Final Adoption

19 Ord 14-12

Amending Sections 60.221, 66.331, and 66.341 of the Zoning Code pertaining to transit streets. (Laid over from April 16)

Councilmember Thune said he didn't think the District Councils had been aware that this change was happening. He displayed a map showing areas along West Seventh that would be affected, and said some of those areas were potential development areas where parking was at a premium. He said he felt reducing the parking requirements would lead to more permit parking requests and competition for parking between businesses and residents, along a street that was not transit-heavy. He said his preference would be not to go ahead, or to conduct a new zoning study and try to get rid of the TN districts. He said the staff report indicated that very few additional areas would be affected, but his map indicated there were a lot of affected areas.

Councilmember Tolbert asked why the change was being made. Hilary Holmes, Planning and Economic Development (PED), said it was not staff's determination that only few areas would be affected, but that there were few areas underneath the current definition that were affected by it. She displayed a map showing T1 and T2 parcels throughout the City. She said the T zoning was where staff and the City had determined it was appropriate, and tended to be focused on mixed use corridors, which were also traditionally transit corridors. She noted when commercial parking was reduced by 25% previously, a reduction in residential had been discussed but not moved forward. She said staff had taken a fresh look at it to determine whether it made more sense to expand or to delete the definition of Transit Street.

Council President Lantry clarified that commercial properties in T1 and T2 zones had already been reduced by 25% and this just added residential.

Councilmember Thune reiterated his concerns and said potential development sites would be affected. He said the change might make it cheaper to develop in areas where increased density wasn't being encouraged. He asked whether the changes could be tied to district plans so neighborhoods could make their own determinations about parking restrictions.

Councilmember Stark said they had discovered along University Avenue that banks were the limiting factor and would not lend money for a development if there wasn't sufficient parking. He said T1 and T2 zoning, depending upon what the zoning was before, didn't necessarily increase density, and he questioned the assertion that the ordinance could lead to increased density in areas where it wasn't desired.

Councilmember Thune said he understood the rationale behind the change to T zoning, but questioned the change in parking requirements. He said parking was at a premium and a tipping point. He said he had met with Dominion, and parking was a concern for them. He said the District Councils were not engaged during the development of the ordinance.

Council President Lantry asked Ms. Holmes whether the District Councils had been notified. Ms. Holmes said the public hearing notice was sent. Council members discussed whether District Councils should be notified about zoning studies.

In response to a question from Councilmember Tolbert, Ms. Holmes reviewed the current requirements.

Councilmember Bostrom said the high demand for residential and business parking was a reality, and he didn't feel there was a reason to reduce parking requirements any further.

Councilmember Stark reiterated that, based on experience along University Avenue, the development issue was self-regulating.

Councilmember Thune said he would not have supported the T zoning if he had known this would be part of it. He said his preference would be to exclude District 9 from the ordinance. Council President Lantry asked Deputy City Attorney Gerald Hendrickson whether that would be possible. Mr. Hendrickson there would have to be a rational basis for treating a specific area differently.

Councilmember Thune asked to send the item back to the Planning Commission so the District Councils, especially District 9, could be consulted about potential adverse effects.

Councilmember Tolbert asked whether the Planning Commission had already considered these issues. Ms. Holmes said the map she had displayed earlier had been looked at by the Comprehensive Planning Committee and Planning Commission. She said changes had been made in response to comments from members of the Planning Commission before the issue came before the City Council.

Councilmember Stark asked whether there had been dissent or discussion at the Comprehensive Planning Committee or Planning Commission meetings. Ms. Holmes said there had been no dissenting votes. Council President Lantry noted that according to the minutes, not one had spoken in support or against.

Councilmember Thune moved a 45 day layover. Council President Lantry asked that PED staff inform the Council within 7 days if the delay was a problem.

Laid over to June 4 for final adoption

In opposition:

Kim Moon (982 California Avenue W.), Chair of the District 10 Land Use Committee, referred to a letter sent to council, recommending denial of this request and adoption of the next one on the agenda. She said the location of the Jack FM van was close to many homes, and they had received many e-mails in opposition to the variance. She said the other variance location was farther off and buffered by trees and hills.

In support:

Abby Walker (5233 Edina Industrial Boulevard, Edina), event organizer, said Jack FM would be playing music from 11:00 to noon at the maximum, and decibel level would be monitored by volunteers. She said the music wasn't intended to be heard along the whole route but was to motivate walkers and celebrate the event. She said they had no intention to disrespect or disturb the neighborhood.

Councilmember Brendmoen moved to close the public hearing. Yeas - 7 Nays - 0

Councilmember Brendmoen said it was a great event and cause, and a great celebration, but the location was a quiet residential area. She moved to deny the application.

Councilmember Thune said he supported the motion, but felt it was a great event which could proceed without the variance.

Councilmember Stark noted that it was never anyone's intent to disturb the neighborhood but even an hour was a lot, and the music was unnecessary.

The motion to deny the application is approved; resolution fails.

Approving adverse action against the Dance or Rental Halls license held by Twin Cities Dance and Entertainment, LLC, d/b/a Dancers Studio at 415 Pascal Street North.

Geoffrey Karls, assistant City Attorney representing the Department of Safety and Inspections (DSI), gave a staff report on the license condition violation prohibiting operation as a public dance hall. He said DSI was recommending a $1000 penalty, an upward deviation from the $500 matrix penalty, because DSI had met with the licensee just previous to the violation to go over the license conditions.

Licensee Marcy McHenry said they were told in January that the event was a private event, and she cancelled the event after receiving more information from the event organizer about the number of participants. She said she had misunderstood the information in the conference with DSI, and believed she was told she could do "dance events." She displayed the event flyers she had been aware of, and said she hadn't been aware of the flyers presented by Mr. Karls in his staff report.

Councilmember Thao asked whether alcohol and food were served at the business. Ms. McHenry said they had an event-hosting license and could accommodate events such as wedding receptions and corporate events.

Councilmember Thao moved to close the public hearing. Yeas - 7 Nays - 0

Councilmember Thao asked Mr. Karls whether the penalty could be reduced. Mr. Karls said the department's recommendation was $1000 and the reasoning for that amount still applied, but the Council had discretion to impose a different penalty.

Council President Lantry said the penalty could be imposed with half of it stayed.

Councilmember Thao moved to impose the $1000 penalty but stay $500 for 18 months given no same or similar violations.

Councilmember Brendmoen said she supported the recommendation, but questioned why dancing was not allowed in a dance hall. Mr. Karls said that the license had a condition prohibiting public events, which he thought was at the request of the landlord.

Adopted as amended ($1000 fine imposed with $500 stayed for 18 months provided there are no same or similar violations)

Yea: 7 - Councilmember Bostrom, Councilmember Brendmoen, City Council President Lantry, Councilmember Stark, Councilmember Thao, Councilmember Thune and Councilmember Tolbert

Approving adverse action against all licenses held by Mars Enterprizes, LLC, d/b/a Half Time Rec at 1013 Front Avenue. (Public hearing held April 16)

Geoffrey Karls, assistant City Attorney representing the Department of Safety and Inspections (DSI), gave a staff report on the violation of the license condition requiring that video be provided to the police... . He said DSI was recommending a $500 penalty as well as an amendment to license condition language to make it current.

In opposition:

Licensee Dave Mars and general manager Scott Mars appeared. Scott Mars said they had spent $4000 upgrading the camera system but discovered the upgraded system had a reduced memory. He said they had immediately called the camera company and added maximum memory to hard drive but still had only 21 to 25 days. He said they could downgrade the camera system to get the required memory. He said police had asked for video only twice in the 4 1/2 years they'd owned the business and it had been provided both times. He said other nearby bars didn't have the same 30 day stipulation.

Councilmember Brendmoen moved to close the public hearing. Yeas - 7 Nays - 0

Council President Lantry asked for the reasoning behind the 30-day requirement. Mr. Karls said the department might not receive a police report until a few weeks after the fact, and some situations were not emergent and it might not immediately occur to police or the department that video is needed.

Councilmember Thune said quality versus quantity might be good trade-off. Mr. Karls said the requirement was 30 days at the request of the police. He acknowledged that it was a trade-off.

Kristina Schweinler, DSI, said many bars had the same condition and most were able to provide clear, quality coverage and still provide 30 days.

Councilmember Bostrom reiterated the quality versus quantity tradeoff, and asked which was most important.

Council President Lantry expressed concern about bars using this as excuse going forward.

Councilmember Brendmoen noted that the licensee was not asking to get out of penalty; she moved to amend to condition to 21 days.

Councilmember Stark said he would support the motion but was hesitant to make that determination without input from the police.

Councilmember Brendmoen moved to lay the matter over for three weeks.

Public hearing held and closed; laid over to May 7 at the 3:30 p.m. portion of the meeting

28 ABZA 14-2

Public hearing to consider the appeal of the District 6 Planning Council to a decision of the Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA) approving two variances from the sign code requirements in order to allow a 21 square foot sign with dynamic display on a multi-tenant free standing sign at 1200 Rice Street.

Yaya Diatta, Department of Safety and Inspections (DSI), gave a staff report on the variances and appeal.

In response to questions from Council President Lantry and Councilmember Brendmoen, Mr Diatta clarified distance requirements between the proposed sign to nearest residential properties on Rice and Maryland. Councilmember Brendmoen confirmed with Mr. Diatta that if the same sign were located 16 feet to the east it wouldn't need a variance.

Appellant:

Kerry Antrim, District 6 Planning Council, reviewed the bases for their appeal. She said the sign wasn't in harmony with the general purposes of the zoning code, and the conditions at the property were created by the landowner when the new building was planned. She said the sign would create a hazard, and she cited an earlier BZA denial made on the basis that monochromatic signs create less of a hazard. She said the proposed sign would change the character and dynamic of the neighborhood, especially historic Rice Street north of the intersection, and was not consistent with the area comprehensive plan.

Councilmember Brendmoen clarified that there were similar signs and stores on Rice Street but not in that specific area.

Ms. Antrim continued that the only condition met by the BZA was that the sign was allowed in this zoning district. She acknowledged the need of the to compete and be visible, but expressed concern about clutter. She stressed that there was a reason for the code.

Councilmember Brendmoen asked whether the location or the type of sign presented the biggest problem for the neighborhood. Ms. Antrim said neighbors would also address that in their testimony, but she believed the colors and the scrolling were the main issues rather than the location.

Councilmember Brendmoen said they were close to a resolution, and the timing of the seemed to be the remaining issue.

Lynn Connolly (105 West Rose Avenue) said the sign as requested would have a significant impact on the residents of the neighborhood, and would flash in her rear bedrooms and over her deck. She said the intersection was one of the most dangerous in the city, and she was struck by a car at the intersection in 1961 due to a distracted driver. She said the north end of Rice Street was at a crossroads, and while the neighborhood hadn't been behind this development, it had turned out great. She said an iconic sign designed to fit in with the new brick building and others in the neighborhood would contribute to the betterment of the area.

In opposition:

Kirsten Libby (855 Rice Street) chair of North End business association and North End business owner stressed the importance of signage for convenience stores and gas stations and said it was the norm. She said Mr. Alsadi had put a lot of time, money, and energy into the site and it benefited everyone on Rice Street, whether commercial or residential. She said the sign would be no different from those at Holiday or Super America.

John Kosmos with KK Design said he had worked with property owner on designing the property after the changes were made to Maryland Avenue. He said the new building was appealing, and the sign was not that far out from what was the norm. He stressed that it only changed from one set of words to another every 60 seconds. He said the hardship was created by the taking of the land associated with widening of Maryland Avenue. He displayed a petition of support, and noted that the closest property on Rice south of Maryland was in support.

In response to a question from Councilmember Brendmoen, he said sign was a few feet taller than Tin Cup's sign but was a different type of sign.

Councilmember Brendmoen asked whether there was room for compromise, for instance starting out with start with monochromatic, mixing in some community interest messages, or changing the timing. She suggested laying the matter over for three weeks.

Mr. Kosmos said they didn't want a layover. He said the store was scheduled to open in two weeks and they needed a sign.

Business owner Bilal Alsadi said District 6 had imposed conditions on his license and were always against him. He said he couldn't be competitive in the business without the sign. He said if he were pushed to move the sign 14 feet to the east he would have it moving much faster. He said he had put everything into the business and needed to go forward.

Councilmember Brendmoen asked to lay the matter over for a short time while she had a discussion outside of the chambers with both parties.

Following the Legislative Hearing Consent Agenda, Councilmember Brendmoen and the parties returned to the Chambers. Ms. Brendmoen said they had agreed to a two-minute image duration with a switch to static after 10:00 p.m., and monochromatic if possible. She said they would be working with District 6 on beautification at the base of the sign using STAR funds, and that Mr. Alsadi had offered a pre-opening "sneak preview" of the business for neighbors.

Deputy City Attorney Jerry Hendrickson suggested appropriate wording for denying the appeal with modifications to the conditions on the variance.

Councilmember Brendmoen made the motion.

Council Meeting Information

The City Council is paperless which saves the environment and reduces expenses. The agendas and Council files are all available on the Web (see below). Councilmembers use iPads to review the files during the meeting. Using the iPad greatly reduces costs since most agendas, including the documents attached to files, are over 1000 pages when printed.

Web

Meetings are available on the Council's website. Email notification and web feeds (RSS) of newly released Minutes, Agendas and Meetings are available by subscription. Please visit www.stpaul.gov/council for meeting videos and updated copies of the Agendas, Minutes and supporting documents.
