Subject: Cosetta Storm-Water Variance Request

Your Comment: Seems like Mr. Cosetta can't quit begging for hand-outs at the expense of taxpayers. He has already gotten forgivable loans and tax increment financing. Now he wants more special treatment in the form of a storm-water variance. This is a businessman that needs to finally start paying his own way, rather than building an empire using taxpayer money. (I don't know how to contact the Zoning Board of Appeals so this will have to do.) The Zoning Board of Appeals must deny his request.
