Subject: 1032 Margaret Street appeal

Good Afternoon Mar. Vang:

I represent Mr. Igar in this appeal Mr. Igar is the brother of the decedent who lived in the above-referenced home. We are in the process of getting him appointed in probate court as personal representative of his brother's estate. My client lives in Florida. I notified your office of my representation on July 2nd. The person I spoke with said that you were not available and she asked if she could assist me. I told her of my recent representation and that I was on vacation this week and therefore requested another appeal date.

This employee then put me on hold for a few minutes. When she came back on the line she told me that she had spoken directly with the hearing examiner and that my request was granted. She told me that the new appeal hearing date is now scheduled for July 21st at 1:30. I told her that was a good date and time for me as well. I asked if I needed to do anything further and she said I didn't.

I immediately notified my client of the rescheduled date and time.

Then today, while I am away on vacation, my client sent me a letter that he received from you indicating that he failed to appear at the hearing and essentially was found to be in default.

I clearly was granted an extended appeal date and I request that the date of July 21st at 1:30 be held and that your action in denying the appeal be rescinded. There was obviously an error by the City in conducting a hearing that was rescheduled and approved by your office and the hearing examiner.

Please reply to me as soon as feasible so that I know that this matter has been corrected.

Kind regards, Michelle
