Joanna,

It is Friday evening, and I just got home and received this email. The letter dated August 10th was never sent to me. This is the first time I've ever seen it. Why was I never sent this letter? I have a right to a hard copy of this letter. I have not been served this letter. Sending a letter via email and dating it with a date that came and went weeks ago is not appropriate.

I was told that I would receive copies of everything in the file. Where is the letter Steve Ubl wrote on behalf of the contractor, Robert Brandtjen, that claims I did not allow him into my home? I have a right to that letter.

And, why has Marcia Moermond, who is supposed to be a neutral, ordered me to leave my home today, when her authority ends with the power to make recommendations to the City Council?

There was a City Council meeting on Wednesday. If this was a crisis requiring extraordinary measures, why did she fail to inform the City Council that she required an emergency agenda item to be added to their calendar?
